

Music Monday: Commercial Jingle

Make up an imaginary invention, and then write a short song about it to try to convince people to buy it. Start by drawing a picture of it, and labeling important features:

Decide on a name for your invention, and write a short poem about what it does, and why people should buy it.

Grownups can share jingles with us at storypirates.com/submit-a-story.
