

• CREATE YOUR • OWN HERO STORY!

The Story Pirates Hero Kit is a companion to our Hero Stories videos at storypirates.com/storypiratesuniversity. To get the most out of the Hero Kit, watch our videos as you go through these activities! We'll guide you as you brainstorm ideas, and then start to transform those ideas into a whole hero story.

Are you reading this on a computer or other device, but don't have a printer? No problem! You can still follow along with the Hero Stories videos, and brainstorm your ideas on blank paper.

As you go through the Hero Kit, you will...

- Create a HERO CHARACTER, and describe them in lots of rich detail!
- Decide on a gigantic, HERO SIZED PROBLEM that threatens an entire community!
- Plan how your hero will rise to the challenge and SOLVE THAT PROBLEM!
- Practice coming up with cool DIALOGUE for your hero to say!
- Start WRITING a story—or DRAWING a comic book! The choice is yours!

Whatever kind of hero you want to write about, just remember this: at Story Pirates, we've read all the hero comics, seen all the hero TV shows, played all the hero video games, and enjoyed all the hero poems. Now we're excited for something NEW and DIFFERENT. Your mission is to create a brand new hero that no one has ever heard of before.

The writing goals for the Hero Stories videos and our companion Hero Kit are in alignment with the COMMON CORE STANDARDS. As described in Writing Standard #3, students will establish detailed characters and situations, and structure the story with a logical sequence of events. Students will also explore how to use dialogue as a tool to move the story forward, and to flesh out the characters and events of a story effectively.

THE HERO SIZED PROBLEM

Every story involves some sort of problem, but in a hero story that problem is SO HUGE that a whole community is in danger, and a hero needs to save the day! For more ideas on how to create a Hero Sized Problem, check out our Hero Stories videos at storypirates.com/storypiratesuniversity.

What is the COMMUNITY where your story takes place? A city? A town? An underground snow fortress? Use your imagination, then draw and label a picture or map!	Time to Draw!
What is the HERO SIZED PROBLEM in the community?

CREATIVE SOLUTIONS

The Hero Sized Problems of today can't be solved just by punching, kicking, and blowing things up. Heroes need to be able to use their imaginations, and come up with creative ways to solve problems that nobody has ever thought of before. For more ideas on how to invent some CREATIVE SOLUTIONS, and then have your hero TRY, FAIL, AND TRY AGAIN, check out our Hero Stories videos at storypirates.com/storypiratesuniversity.

DIALOGUE PRACTICE

A hero story needs lots of interesting dialogue. You want the reader to be able to hear it when your hero gives an inspiring speech, or whispers a secret plan, or makes a cool snappy comment. Practice writing some dialogue for your hero that you might put into a story later! For more ideas and information, watch our Hero Stories videos at storypirates.com/storypiratesuniversity.

Write some dialogue here. Use quotation marks, and che instead of "said".	ck out the next page for some words you could use
You can also draw your hero in an exciting scene, and ad	d a speech bubble for what they're saying.

HOW WILL YOUR HERO TALK?

You can choose to use some of these words instead of "said," when you're writing dialogue for your hero. To hear examples of what each of these speaking styles sounds like, watch our Hero Stories videos at storypirates.com/storypiratesuniversity.

Want more ideas for creating heroes, and sending those heroes on exciting quests? Check out the Story Pirates' third book, Quest for the Crystal Crown. The story is based on an idea by a kid named Angie Ortiz, which was turned into a whole novel by authors Annabeth Bondor-Stone and Connor White. The book also includes a special section at the end called the Fantasy Creation Zone, which guides aspiring authors in how to create their own fantasy stories. Look for it wherever you buy books!
